

2012 Civic Awards

CATEGORIES

- Only one award will be presented in the categories of Citizen of the Year, Jr. Citizen of the Year and Outstanding Business. Multiple awards may be presented in the other categories.
- Nominees must be residents of Brighton or demonstrate outstanding service and contribution to the Brighton community. In the case of a business, must be operating from a Brighton location.

Citizen of the Year (must be an individual)

Demonstrates outstanding service and contribution to the Brighton community. Such service can be accumulated over many years, or it can relate to a significant project or event that has brought recognition and value to the community.

Jr. Citizen of the Year (must be an individual)

A youth between the ages of 12 and 19 who, through his/her involvement in community activities and events is demonstrating the qualities of good citizenship

Outstanding Achievement in the Arts

Individuals or organizations who gain acceptance or recognition of outstanding achievement in one or more of the arts where considerable discipline, skill and training are required (or where adjudicators or judges have publicized their awarding opinion or decision). For the purpose of this award, arts shall include but not be limited to: literary arts, performing arts, visual arts, film, music, video and traditional arts

Outstanding Community Service

Individuals or organizations who, through their actions of social and/or philanthropic community engagement, have improved the quality of life for a targeted segment of Brighton's population, or for the community at large

Outstanding Athletic Achievement

Individuals or groups that achieve success in athletic endeavours. This award is not restricted to athletes, but can include coaches and supporters of athletic activities as well

Outstanding Business Achievement

A locally-based business that demonstrates community leadership and success in local economic development. This award can recognize company growth, job creation, a focus on health and safety, consideration for the environment, and other attributes that make a business successful. (Note: Not-For-Profit, charitable groups or government agencies are not eligible for this award)

"Mystery Category" Award

You name the category! Tell us who deserves to win and why!